

IRF Virtual Conference Platform Quick Reference Guide

Thank you for making plans to join and IRF Vision Zero for Africa Virtual Conference. Whether you are a delegate, speaker or exhibitor, this reference guide is designed to make your experience as smooth as possible.

Activating your account:

To access the event please visit: <https://app.socio.events/OTAxNQ/>

Then, enter the exact email address you used to register, set your own password, and create your profile, for instance by adding your picture and providing some biographic elements or areas of interest, which will facilitate networking during the conference

Download the app (iOS & Android):

You can also download our companion mobile app to network and chat with others and receive helpful push notifications and updates.

Please visit your app store and locate the app titled "IRF Global Events" or please scan the QR code.

After the app is installed, enter the exact email address you used to register, set your own password, and create your profile (if you haven't already)

Tap which conference you wish to join: IRF Asia-Pacific Virtual Conference

Tap JOIN

Select & join your sessions:

As a registered user, you can create a bespoke program by indicating which sessions you wish to attend. Please head to the Agenda & Live Stream and select the '+' icon next to each session of interest.

Once a session has started livestreaming, you will have the option of joining that session.

Interact with speakers & delegates:

To interact with speakers, e.g. to ask questions, during a session, please use the Chat function available on your laptop, phone or table.

To network with delegates, select “Attendees” and use the search bar to type a name, a country or an interest area (e.g. ‘pavements’). The platform will return results and you can add individual delegates. Once a delegate has accepted your add request, you may start using the Messages function with them.

Sponsors & Exhibitors:

Please take a moment to visit our sponsor & exhibitor booths between the session times.

You ask to be contacted by a representative of the sponsor and/or exhibitor by clicking “Request Follow Up”.

IRF Event Game

The IRF Event Challenge (where available) is a light-hearted opportunity to test your knowledge. Various prizes are available to the first delegates who reach the top score.
